

Are you what you eat?

Noted expert Don Katz clarifies the mystery

University on Wheels

featuring

Don Katz

Associate Professor of Psychology and Neuroscience, Brandeis University

Joining us will be the Brandeis U. Western Student Ambassador, Savannah Pearlstein.

The learned and lively Dr. Katz will discuss how our brains combine a welter of information so that most of us end up liking sweets, some of us end up liking beer, and all of our tastes are subject to change.
